COURSE DESCRIPTION: The theory and practice of corporate (business) finance, including asset management, cost of capital and capital budgeting, optimization problems, and socio-economic aspects of financial management. Computer technology may be employed when applicable.

1. COURSE OBJECTIVE: The objective of the course is to learn and understand the decision-making aspects of planning for, acquiring, and allocating capital within the firm.

2. PREREQUISITES: Full Graduate Student Status.

3. TEXTBOOKS: Financial Management: Theory and Practice; 14e. By Brigham & Ehrhardt; South-Western, pub. 2014/2011. (Any cases used in the course will be provided by instructor)

4. EVALUATION: Preparation/discussion/review of problem sets and cases (see assignments for each chapter below). Grading scale: A=100% to 90%; B=<90% to 80%; C=<80% to 70%; U=<70%. (Total grade calculation: quizzes after each module=30%; class participation=20%; problem sets (see syllabus)=30%; case presentations=20%)

5. ATTENDANCE POLICY: There is no ‘attendance policy’. (Please be reminded that in order to perform at an acceptable level on at least the ‘class participation’ portion of the grade, you must conform to our Webex "meeting" times.)

Communication

The most efficient way to contact me is through email (well, Canvas now)I check my messages regularly and typically respond promptly. If I haven’t responded, that means, for whatever reason, I did not receive your communication. Please continue to contact me until you get a response. Much out-of-class communication will be done by email. I will contact you on your standard UNCC email address (@uncc.edu). If you respond with another email address, I will assume it is fine to respond back to you at that same email address. When I email the entire class, I will only use your UNCC email address.

Make-up Policies for Exams/presentations

Make-up exams may be requested for valid excuses only. All excuses must have verifiable documentation. Foreseeable excuses (e.g. traveling for work) must be documented and requests received at least one week in advance of the exam. The only acceptable unforeseen excuses for exams are death or serious illness in the family or a student illness. These also must be documented. A student missing a test with an unexcused absence will receive a score of zero.

When You Need Help

Please seek assistance if you have any questions about course material or difficulties with the concepts. This includes questions during class, questions that arise during group discussions. Your regular and thoughtful preparation for class, your engagement with the course materials, are the most important determinants of success in the course. Remember, the summer term moves by quickly!
